FAMOUS MARKSMEN TO SHOOT IN SALEM FOR LOCAL GUN CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Topperwein Will Give Exhibition Here Sept. 20

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Topperwein, celebrated marksmen, will give an exhibition of fancy and expert shooting at the grounds of the Capital City Rod and Gun club September 20 under the auspices of this organization.

Mr. Topperwein is the acknowledged dean of fancy and trick shots, and his many feats are of a highly sensational character. Mrs. Topperwein has no equal among women for adeptness in shooting. Ladies are especially urged to go and witness her astonishing skill with shotgun, rifle and pistol.

Some idea of the unusual character of the exhibition given by the Topperweins will be gained from the following remarks: Adolph Topperwein, the greatest living fancy and flying target shot with a rifle, lives in San Antonio, Texas. His native state has long been noted for its expert shooters and this penchant for shooting among Texans, added to his natural ability, undoubtedly accounts for the skill he displayed. He uses no special equipment, but ordinary Winchester rifles, shooting regular cartridges with solid ball, cartridges such as are sold by all dealers. He shoots at oranges, apples, bits of coal or brick, walnuts, small marbles, sorry cartridge shells, and many other flimsy objects, which are all thrown into the air and hit with either rifle or revolver.

In an exhibition of rifle shooting Mr. Topperwein shot for 10 days at 72,500 2 1/4 inch wooden blocks thrown into the air by an assistant, missing only nine out of the entire lot. During the shooting, he made straight runs of 14,540, 15,500, 13,282, 13,210 and 10,381. Considering the almost incredible score and the tremendous strain of such incessant shooting, it is unlikely that this record will ever be beaten.

Other remarkable feats by Mr. Topperwein with the rifle were his scoring of 85 out of 100 2 1/2 inch targets thrown into the air while riding at full speed in an automobile; and the breaking of 3,507 targets without a miss at the world's fair in St. Louis.

Mr. Topperwein is the originator of many fancy and trick shots and also of the feat of drawing the heads of Indian chiefs and other pictures with bullets shot from a rifle. Rifle shooting is not his only accomplishment, as he does good work also with revolver, pistol and shotgun.

Mrs. Topperwein is undoubtedly the premier lady shot of the world. Although she took up shooting only a few years ago, she has startled the shooting world and entertained many thousands of people by her great skill with rifle, shotgun and pistol. Shooting comes natural to her as without seeming difficulty she masters various kinds of shooting quickly.

Her first public appearance was at the world's fair in St. Louis, where, with a Winchester automatic rifle, she broke 907 out of 1,000 2 1/2 inch flying targets, and later 1,905 out of 2,000 with a straight run of 1,437.

Besides being a wing and fancy shot, Mrs. Topperwein is a consistent straighter at the traps and has made a straight run of 226 and won many high averages in open competitions, shooting against the best professional and amateur shots in the world. At San Antonio, Texas, July 18, 1908, she broke 961 x 1,000 traps thrown at the regulation distance.

in four hours and 35 minutes.

At the Pacific Coast Haglinep, held at Seattle in 1913, Mrs. Topperwein won high general average over a large field of the best shots of the Pacific coast and Canada. On the first day of the tournament, she made the remarkable score of 195 x 200, which included 20 doubles, and on the final day she broke the entire program of 100 singles straight. During the year 1913, Mrs. Topperwein shot at 10,000 targets, scoring over 95 per cent. She made straight runs of 100 nine times and one run of 105, shooting for the Denver Post trophy in a gale of wind, she scored 94 x 100 from the 21 yard mark. At the eastern handicap she outshot the field of over 250 shooters by scoring 98 x 100 from 19 yards; and closing her season's work at the state fair in Phoenix, Ariz., she scored for the three days shooting the magnificent total of 397 x 405 targets; and in a special handicap event, standing at the 23 yard mark, she broke 93 targets out of 100. Mrs. Topperwein is the only lady in the world who ever had the honor to qualify as a national marksman in open competition, shooting at 300, 300 and 500 yards with a military rifle.

BELLE PASSI WINS EASILY

The Belle Passi team made it 14 straight last Sunday by winning the game at St. Louis 14-3. Rice held the St. Louis team to one hit, while the local boys collected 16 hits off the St. Louis pitchers. It looked like a good game the first inning, as Lashapelle held the Belle Passi wonders to one hit, but after that they put the jinx to his twisters, awaiting them all over the lot. Following was the line up:

Belle Passi — Coy, catcher; Rice, pitcher; Harper, first base; Lavigne, right field; Purcell, left field; Branigan, center field; Homes, second base; Norton, shortstop; Bruich, third base.

St. Louis — Lawson, catcher; E. Lashapelle, pitcher and right field; C. Canard, first base; P. Canard, right field and pitcher; R. Bursell, left field; A. LeRuan, center field; L. Lashapelle, second base; P. Bursell, shortstop; J. Lashapelle, third base.

Runs by innings:

Belle Passi . . . 0 2 3 1 1 1 3—14
St. Louis . . . 1 0 0 0 1 0 0—3

WACONDA NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Wacanda, Ore., Sept. 4.—The school house which is being erected at Wacanda is progressing very rapidly. The building has just received its second coat of paint and the interior is nearly finished, and so within the next week or two the building will be entirely completed. As yet no teacher has been hired but this will be done in the near future so that school will open the last of September or the first of October.

The hop season is now here and most of the yards have begun picking. While there are many hop pickers in the valley the crops as a whole are not as good as they were last year.

Mrs. P. McCarthy, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Savage. Mrs. H. H. Savage, of Salem, is also visiting there.

Miss Ross Patterson, of Salem, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Patterson, last Sunday.

Mrs. E. P. Habert was a Salem visitor on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, of Iowa, are

COUNTRY CLUB GOLFERS NOW HOPING FOR RAIN

Hard, Dry Course Causes Ball To Take Unexpected and Weird Bounds

The golfers, who have been so earnestly hoping for rain, have not yet had their hopes realized, and the links are still as hard and parched as ever. While on ground of this kind a ball will travel farthest, the benefit of the added distance is nullified by the lack of accuracy of direction. It certainly is exasperating to the golfer to see a fine long shot traveling straight towards the hole, strike the ground and bound at right angles to its desired line of flight, perhaps on another bounce to make another and still greater change in direction. With the links so hard and dry falls is what often occurs.

However, the picking time, as well as the state fair, will soon be here, and Jupiter Phivus will be in evidence, that is, if he acts according to his custom.

Another player equaled the club record for the course, R. C. Bishop doing the 18 holes in 104. A few of the members have done it in this number of strokes, and are making determined efforts to come under the century mark. Doubtless during the next few days quite a few strokes will be capped off the record.

Playing with the Brothers Hutchison, Eddy, the local professional, made the fifth hole in two, his tee shot almost sinking in the cup.

The old building has been repaired and Mr. Eddy expects to move in very soon. He states that the ladies may have the use of one of the rooms.

On account of the inconvenient schedule of the trains, those not enjoying the luxury of an automobile are somewhat at a disadvantage in getting to the links. Possibly a "jitney" may be found to make the trip leaving from a specified place at a convenient time.

Those who have conscientious scruples against Sunday playing, or who may not have seen the game played, should go to Finzer Monday, when doubtless quite a few players will be seen spending the holiday golfing. Anyone is welcome to go and see what Salem has and a few hours spent there would not be wasted.

Suspected Case of Rabies Results In Killing of Dog

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Dallas, Ore., Sept. 3.—Sheriff John W. Orr recently killed a dog belonging to a resident of the Buell neighborhood. The animal had been acting queerly for several days and the sheriff was called, the people thinking that the dog had rabies. The head of the animal was brought to this city and examined, but no traces of the disease could be found. Mr. Lytle, the state veterinarian, has informed Sheriff Orr that if no more cases of rabies appear the quarantine on dogs will be raised about the 15th of the month.

Falls City Resident Dies

Mrs. Ada Turner, of Falls City, passed away at the Dallas hospital Wednesday morning following an operation known as the Cæsarian section. The life of the baby was saved. Mrs. Turner was a widow, her husband having died in California last spring.

Kathleen Hood has filed suit for divorce from her husband, James Hood. Cruel and inhuman treatment and failure to support is the charge. Jas. R. Sibley is attorney for the plaintiff.

Miss Ruth Miller has gone to Ellensburg, Wash., to spend several months with relatives.

Professor D. M. Metzger left today for Lemora, Iowa, where he is an instructor in the English department of the Western Union college. He was accompanied by Professor Smith, another teacher from the same institution, who has been a guest of the Metzger home for the past several weeks.

Parsons Elected Supervisor.

H. H. Parsons, a former teacher in the Dallas public schools, has been elected by the county board of education as school supervisor for Polk county to succeed L. V. Mackin, whose term of office has expired, and who has recently engaged in the moving picture business in Monmouth. Mr. Parsons has taught school in McMinnville for the past year. He will take up his duties in the school superintendent's office the latter part of the month.

Heavy Tax Payments.

In the past two weeks the sheriff's office has collected taxes that will approximate amount to about $10,000, more than $2000 having been taken in on Monday alone. The rush in the office is caused by the fact that Tuesday was the last day to pay taxes without a penalty, provided that no part of the taxes had previously been paid.

The county commissioners are in Grande Ronde today inspecting work that has been done on the roads in that locality.

the guests of their brother, Mr. E. M. Palmer, for a few days while on their way to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Stiffie, of Portland, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Evans.

Miss Ellen Savage, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is now slowly recovering.

Miss Leverage Palmer is spending a week with her sister, Alice Palmer, of Salem.

Many peaches are being shipped from here although not as many as earlier in the season. For two weeks 700 boxes were shipped daily.

Mrs. Joseph Buehfeld, of Portland, is visiting here father, Wm. Egan.

STATE NEWS

Marshfield Record: Two ladies of North Bend received a big scare yesterday afternoon while picking buckberries in the district west of Pony inlet near the lower bay. They were making their way through some heavy bushes, when one of them spied a black object about 30 feet away. It was a bear lying away in rest and as they came in view of the animal it turned and gazed at them. This was enough and both women broke for the outside and made their way back to North Bend in the greatest speed possible. Bruin, however, did not follow them nor make any demonstration, but the ladies did not wait for developments. Several posses of hunters were organized in North Bend, some with dogs, but the bear could not be located.

Albany Democrat: A man from South Carolina got off one of the through trains from California and was looking around, when he saw a democratic representative and gave him an interview about the country. His wife standing on a step of the car, cried out: "Ask him if there are any churches and schools there." They were informed that we have the best in the United States with both high and junior high, as well as all the modern city improvements, in fact that we are far ahead of cities of like size in the east and south. It is a wonder they did not have their guns leveled to protect them from the Indians.

Coos Bay Times: Mrs. John Marshall who resides at 634 Donnelly avenue, while looking over the pictures of war scenes in Europe in The Times office window had quite a shock when she discovered her brother in one of them. The picture portrayed a meeting in Trafalgar Square, London, and her brother was standing in the crowd. She had not seen him in three years but is positive that it is he. She will secure a copy of the picture. Her brother was formerly on the London Stock Exchange and is now about 65 years old. She and Mr. Marshall since they left London three years ago have traveled in Asia, Australia, Canada and the United States. Mr. Marshall is now quite ill.

Polk County Observer: John Boyer, of Bear Camp was in Dallas on Wednesday, and while here told The Observer that a halibut had been discovered at the mouth of Salmon river, and that Portland parties are making fishing there a lucrative business. The bed is about ten miles off the bar.

SOCIETY

The Bible class is under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. A welcome is extended to all. No fee is charged. The subject for study will be Ephesians.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Dora Andrews, in Portland, when her daughter, Miss Rose Gage, was united in marriage to Mr. E. S. Ziegler, foreman of the motor and truck department of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co., having been 18 years in their employ. The bride was attired in a white embroidered gown. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and maiden-hair fern. Miss Gage made many friends in Portland. After congratulations, a buffet luncheon was served. Immediately after they left on the Great Northern steamship for San Francisco and Los Angeles. They will be at home after September 30 at the Adriatic apartments. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler are well known in Salem, having frequently visited here.

"That fall, the fall of 1850, I went to Salem," said Judge Collins, of Dallas, a pioneer of Oregon, in relating his early experiences to Fred Lockley, of the Oregon Journal, "and went to school to the Oregon institute, as the Willamette university was then called. Of my schoolmates of 65 years ago I only know of one who is now living, Mrs. John Hughes, of Salem. Her maiden name was Pringle. She was a sister of Octavious Pringle, who died not long ago in Portland. They crossed the plains with us in 1846. F. S. Hoyt had just come to take charge of the school. President Hoyt and his wife both taught. Mary Leslie had charge of the primary department. Among my schoolmates were John Catlin, later a judge; Sam Parrish, later chief of police of Portland; Beverly and Atkinson Waller, and the two Waller girls. One of these girls later married Rev. C. C. Stratton, a Methodist minister, and a graduate of the theological department of the Willamette university. The other married Dr. C. H. Hall, who had charge of the college at Lebanon in the '50's, and who for years was one of Salem's leading physicians."

Among those from Salem registered at the beach and inland hotels the past week were: Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush, Miss Alice Brown, James A. Brown, Dr. Eugene Fuller, The Tavern, Neah-Kah-Nie; Mrs. G. W. Gray and daughter, Gertrude Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Page, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Peary, Bar View hotel; A. J. Gillette, Hotel Moan, Seaside.

During the week a number of persons enjoyed a highly distinctive entertainment, when Mr. and Mrs. W. P. George entertained in honor of their niece, Miss Julia George, a graduate of the Columbia college of expression of Chicago, who is visiting them while enroute from her former home at Stilloum Springs, Arkansas, to Payette, Idaho, having come by the way of San Diego and San Francisco expositions. The George home was tastefully decorated with flowers, and the time was pleasantly passed with vocal and instrumental music. During the evening Miss George gave two readings, a treat much appreciated by those privileged to hear her, as she is an artist of fine attainments and on this occasion more than fulfilled the expectations of her audience. Mrs. D. Goulson contributed several recitations, to the delight of the guests, especially the younger people, as her friends were not aware of her accomplishments along this line.

W. T. LaFollette, recently from the east, made a few remarks, taking as his subject, "Us, Which is Ourselves." Refreshments were served, and at a late hour the guests departed feeling they had enjoyed an entertainment of exceedingly pleasant character. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald and daughter, Grace, Mr. and Mrs. D. Goulson, Jess, George and family, W. T. LaFollette and family, Miss Bessie Gill, Grace Howe, Mildred Gill, Bessie Barnett, Miss Hulman, Gula George, and Messrs. Earl Sumner, Lee George and Alozo Seamster.

The W. B. Lindsays are entertaining as their house guest Miss Sara Bailey, of Piqua, Ohio. Miss Bailey is en route from California, where she spent three weeks attending the expositions. She will leave next week for Bellevue, Nebraska, to take up her position as instructor in home economics at the Bellevue college.
